

Sing for No Reason

Sing to the north, I sing to the south
Send these words right outta my mouth

Sing in the winter, and the springtime too
Sing all summer that's what I do

CH: Sing for no reason
Sing for no reason
Singing don't ever go out of season (repeat CH, encourage singing along)

Sing to the water and I sing to the sky ... and it's like I hear an echo ...
(encourage call and response throughout verses)

Sing for a pelican passing by
Sing with the kettle and I sing with the birds
Hey diddle diddle or any such words

Sing for no reason
Sing for no reason
Singing don't ever go out of season

And the little birds sing like nothin's wrong
Help me sing a little bird song (whistle, bird calls)
I wanna sing like a raven too (caw, caw)
Raven caw in a world made new

Caw for no reason
Caw for no reason
Cawing don't ever go out of season
Cawing don't ever go out of tune, so

I caw in the winter and I coo in the spring
In the summer I sing like anything.
If you want a reason, here is why:
Caw! My bathing suit's almost dry!
Oh and I woke up feeling good
It's a brand new day in my neighbourhood.
New day

New day

So I sing with the kettle and I sing with the birds
Hey diddle diddle or any such words
Hey diddle diddle makes me laugh
This could be my epitaph!

Sing for no reason
Sing for no reason
Singing don't ever go out of season (repeat chorus with improv)

And
When I die, there better be singing!
I wanna hear those rafters ringing!
I want feel the world made new
How I love it when you sing too

Sing for no reason
Sing for no reason
Singing don't ever go out of season (repeat chorus with improv)

I sing to the north, I sing to the south
Send these words right outta my mouth
